

We have trumpeted the glorious quality of the 2009 vintage Bordeaux and southern Rhone wines to you over the last 1-1/2 years. It was a spectacular vintage for both areas. Waiting in the wings, and just now beginning to arrive, are the superb 2009 red Burgundies. They are every bit as high in quality as their other compatriots from France. 2009 also gives one the rare opportunity to drink good red Burgundy "on the cheap", as the lower level appellations have performed spectacularly.

The critics agree:

"The sweet spot in 2009 is at the entry level, where a great number of wines outperform their humble pedigrees ... Readers will find no shortage of absolutely delicious Bourgognes in 2009 that won't break the bank."-The Wine Advocate

"An excellent, and very consistent, vintage of opulence, charm and seduction." -Burghound.com

Vincent Sauvestre Bourgogne Rouge 2009

Green's Cash Sale Price: $14.99

Sourced from vineyards located primarily around Pommard and Meursault, half of this wine is aged in oak and the other half in stainless steel. This wine is all about soft supple red and dark fruit in an elegant format. YOU CAN'T FIND PINOT NOIR LIKE THIS FROM AMERICA AT THIS PRICE WITH THIS MUCH BREED AND QUALITY.-Green's Wine Buyer

Thierry Mortet Bourgogne Rouge 2009

Green's Cash Sale Price: $19.99

Only 400 cases of this wine is made, sourced from 6 parcels totaling one hectare (2.47 acres), from vines aging up to 40 years old. "A rich, meaty style, with ripe blackberry, cherry and earth notes. This is fleshy, staying focused and long on the finish. Drink now through 2014...88 points"-The Wine Spectator

Vincent Sauvestre Savigny-les-Beaune 2009

Green's Cash Sale Price: $19.99

Savigny-les-Beaune is a pretty little village located in the northern Cote de Beaune, not far from the hill of Corton. I can't think of a better example of a village wine from this region that sums up the area's character and style at its best. Ripe cherry and licorice in the bouquet, the entry is soft with rich dark fruit notes and concentration. Yet possesses good structure and complexity, it is delicious now, but will easily mature for another 2-3 years. Just spot on for a Pinot Noir at this price!-Green's Wine Buyer

Thierry Mortet Gevrey Chambertin 2009
Green's Cash Sale Price: $49.99

This village wine tastes like a Premier Cru! "This rich, fleshy red is balanced on the soft side, with black cherry and blackberry flavors. Very accessible now, with its structure well-coated by fruit. Drink now through 2018."-The Wine Spectator

10% Case Discount (Mixed or Solid)

New Arrivals!
2009 Red Burgundy