

The New Official Wine Of Summer!

Domaine de Pellehaut Blanc 2009

Green's Cash Price: Only $7.99

Each summer for the past 15 years, Green's has selected a special white wine; one that we thought was the perfect foil for the hot climate of Atlanta. In the past, we have selected Domaine de Pouy and Le Jade Picpoul de Pinet. However, we have found a new white wine for the summer of 2010 to carry on the tradition.

Made in very much the same style and from the same area as the Domaine de Pouy of previous years, we like this wine better. A blend of Sauvignon Blanc, Colombard, Ugni Blanc, Chardonnay, Gros Manseng, and Petit Manseng, it has an attractive floral, white fruit, and herb aroma, with fresh fruit and acidity on the palate, this lively dry white wine is a delightful quaff alone, or with mild fish and chicken dishes. It's also very easy on the budget at $7.99! -Green's Wine Buyer
