“Catena Zapata’s newest releases continue the high standards established by this Bodega virtually from its onset, a tribute to Nicolas Catena who continues to oversee his empire.”
- The Wine Advocate

“Bodega Catena Zapata winery is the qualitative standard bearer for the country...”
- The Wine Spectator

Bodega Catena Zapata
Malbec 2009
Green's Cash Price: $15.99

“A rich red, with ripe flavors of linzer torte, plum pudding and fig paste backed by layers of mesquite, olive paste and grilled herbs, as grippy tannins add weight to the long, vibrant finish.”

Bodega Catena Zapata Chardonnay 2009

Green's Cash Price: $15.99

"Aromas of buttered popcorn, pear, apple, and baking spices; impeccable balance, precision finish."

Rated 90 Points-Wine Advocate

Bodega Catena Zapata
Catena Alta Chardonnay 2008

Green's Cash Price: $29.99

"...outstanding aromatic array of buttered popcorn, honeysuckle, mineral, and tropical fruits, on the palate it is medium-bodied, concentrated, impeccably balanced, and lengthy...The Alta Chardonnay's relatively modest price should put a scare into California and French Chardonnay producers who routinely charge double (or more) for similar quality."

Bodega Catena Zapata Cabernet Sauvignon Alta 2007

Green's Cash Price: $47.99

"Flashy, with silky tannins framing the cassis and boysenberry notes, as toasty hints of mocha and licorice linger on the juicy finish."

Rated 90 Points-The Wine Spectator

Bodega Catena Zapata Cabernet Sauvignon Nicolas Catena Zapata 2007

Green's Cash Price: $99.99

"The flagship...a blend of 70% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Malbec, and the balance Petit Verdot and Cabernet Franc. It delivers an enthralling aromatic array of pain grille, pencil lead, mineral, espresso, mocha, incense, lavender, black currant, black cherry, and blackberry. This leads to a full-bodied, powerful yet elegant effort with great depth and volume, precision balance, and a voluptuous personality."
