

(photo courtesy of about.com)

Italian Wine Extravaganza!

Green's has a cache of some of Italy's finest wines. Everything from a delightful Montepulciano d'Abruzzo for $6.99 to a mature 2000 vintage Barbaresco selling at $199.99 is here for your drinking pleasure.

10% Case Discount (Mixed or Solid)

Download this article as a PDF file.

Red Wines

From Piedmont:

Prunotto Barbera d'Asti Fiulot 2007
Green's Cash Price: $14.99

"Richer, more balsamic nose offers tobacco, earth, smoke and chocolate...impressive and mouthfilling style, with a lusher texture to the middle palate. Finishes rich, broad...89 points."
-International Wine Cellar

Produttori del Barbaresco Barbaresco 2005
Green's Cash Price: $29.99

"Once again, the Produttori have turned out a gem in their 2005 Barbaresco. A beautiful, perfumed Nebbiolo, the wine flows effortlessly from the glass with captivating notes of crushed flowers, raspberries, sweet herbs and spices. This classic, mid-weight Barbaresco possesses plenty of clean, bright fruit framed by elegant tannins, showing notable harmony. Simply put, this is a classic wine Piedmont lovers won't want to miss. Ideally, the wine should be cellared for a few years, but readers will have a hard time exercising such patience...91 points."-The Wine Advocate

DAMILANO

Lecinquevigne
BAROLO
Monumenti di Piazza Castello - Barolo

Damilano Barolo Lecinquevigne 2004
Green's Cash Price: $39.99

"...made from five vineyards in the villages of Barolo, Castiglione Falletto and Monforte, and is aged in a combination of Slavonian and French oak. Tar, smoke, earthiness and black cherries emerge as this Barolo flows from the glass, showing unusually refined tannins..." - The Wine Advocate

Corino Barolo 2004
Green's Cash Price: $44.99

"Blackberry aromas, with licorice and rose. Full-bodied, with velvety tannins and a long, wonderful finish...90 points."-The Wine Spectator

Revello Barolo 2004
Green's Cash Price: $49.99

"A balanced, fruity wine, with strawberry and blackberry character and hints of flowers. Full and fruity, with a chewy finish...90 points." -The Wine Spectator

Grimaldi Barolo 2004
Green's Cash Price: $46.99

"Strawberry tart aromas, with an underlying blackberry character, lead to a full-bodied palate, with lovely plum and milk chocolate flavors,

Marengo Barolo 2004
Green's Cash Price: $49.99

"Marengo's 2004 Barolo is a lovely, poised wine. It offers feminine, perfumed fruit in the graceful, finessed expression typical of the Barolos of La Morra. It should be a terrific value as well...90 points"-The Wine Advocate

Revello Barolo Vigna Gattera 2004
Green's Cash Price: $55.99

"Sweet mentholated notes intertwined with dark red fruit and spices emerge from this beautiful, silky-textured wine. Made in a structured style for a La Morra Barolo, it reveals outstanding length and terrific overall balance. This took some time to open up, but when it did, it was superb...92 points."-The Wine Advocate

Scavino Barolo 2004
Green's Cash Price: $59.99

"The estate's Barolo has always been a standout and the 2004 is no exception. It is a perfumed wine that presents the essence of dried roses, plums, cherries and herbs with a medium-bodied, feminine personality. A sweet note of tar lingers on the long, resonating finish...91 points."-The Wine Advocate

Marengo Barolo Bricco
Green's Cash Price: $59.99

"...always a taut, focused wine but in 2004 it is surprisingly generous in its expression of roses, black cherries, spices and minerals. This offers superb inner perfume to its fruit and notable harmony. In top vintages Marco Marengo can give some of his more famous neighbors a run for their money. 2004 is without question one of those vintages. Readers looking for a source of first-rate Barolo at affordable prices should consider these new releases, all of which are outstanding...91 points."-The Wine Advocate

F Ili Cavallotto Barolo Bricco Boschis 2004
Green's Cash Price: $65.99

"I can't think of too many estates whose wines have given me as much pleasure in recent years as those of the Cavallotto family. With each passing vintage the wines seem to grow leaps and bounds and the 2004 Barolo Bricco Boschis is no exception. This fresh, perfumed Barolo blossoms with the essence of red raspberries, flowers and spices. Made in a plump, fruit driven style, it possesses superb length and a completely seductive, rapturous personality...If the bottled wine is anything like this barrel sample, the 2004 will be the finest Bricco Boschis yet...91-94 points."-The Wine Advocate

Elio Altare Barolo 2004
Green's Cash Price: $99.99

"...dense wine loaded with considerable fruit that hides the tannic structure that lurks underneath. Licorice, menthol, baking spices and dark red fruit all make an appearance in this superbly well-proportioned Barolo. Sweet, ripe tannins, and a lingering note of mint give this wine a beautiful sense of lift on the finish...It is a lovely wine and is not to be missed...93 points."-The Wine Advocate (Available at Buford Highway Store only)

Gaja Barbaresco 2000
Green's Cash Price: $199.99

"Like smelling a bouquet of flowers and then a bowl of raspberries. Full-bodied, with perfectly integrated tannins and a very fine, silky texture. Long and caressing. A must-have, great wine...95 points."-The Wine Spectator (Available at Buford Highway Store only)

From Tuscany:

Caposaldo Chianti 2007
Green's Cash Sale Price: $7.99

"...offers good vibrancy and freshness in its red berries, with good length and a round, harmonious personality. It is a good choice for informal drinking..."-The Wine Advocate

Castello di Querceto Chianti Classico 2007
Green's Cash Price: $14.99

A full-bodied, well-structured version, with crushed black fruit, flowers and oak on the nose and palate, coating the firm tannins and giving a long, controlled finish...90 points."-The Wine Spectator

Altesino Toscana Rosso di Altesino 2007
Green's Cash Price: $16.99

"Plum and cedar aromas follow through to a medium body, with soft, silky tannins and a fruity finish. Clean and focused. Sangiovese, Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot...89 points." -The Wine Spectator

Villa Antinori Toscana Rosso 2005
Green's Cash Price: $19.99

"Dark in color, with aromas of plum and fresh herbs. Medium-bodied, with soft tannins and a clean finish. Sangiovese, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Syrah." -The Wine Spectator

Casanova di Neri Rosso 2007
Green's Cash Price: $24.99

"Deep, expressive aromas of black cherry, raspberry, sweet spices and balsamic vinegar...broad and rich, combining very ripe red and black fruits with a healthy dollop of sweet chocolatey oak and a hint of coffee liqueur. The long finish features velvety tannins and a balsamic edge as well as a lingering sweet black cherry flavor...89 points."-Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar

Fontodi Chianti Classico Riserva Vigna del Sorbo 2004
Green's Cash Price: $69.99

"Pretty, fresh blackberry and warm cherry aromas on the nose with fragrant nuances of rose petals and Chinese five spice. The tannins are firm yet finely grained and accessible. A crisp backbone of acidity provides freshness and perfect balance to the rich, ripe fruit flavours. The style straddles that wonderfully fine line between elegance and decadence. Very long finish with lingering notes of black truffles...96 points."-The Wine Advocate

Morisfarms Morellino di Scansano 2007
Green's Cash Price: $18.99

"...an engaging wine loaded with plump, ripe fruit and an accessible personality. Today it comes across as quite vibrant and fresh...Year in year out, this is one of the finest values from Tuscany...89 points."-The Wine Advocate

Caparzo Brunello di Montalcino 2004
Green's Cash Price: $55.99

"...reveals dark red fruit, flowers, licorice and oak in a medium to full-bodied style. The tannins are nicely balanced and the wine offers plenty of richness to match...It is a lovely effort from Caparzo...91 points."-The Wine Advocate

From Umbria:

Stella Montepulciano d'Abruzzo 2008
Green's Cash Price: $6.99

"Stella is an excellent source for tasty wines under $10 a bottle. Importer Leonardo LoCascio personally selects the lots that a small group of partner wineries bottle on his behalf. The model of importer-created wines is on the rise, and quite frankly it is difficult if not impossible for most wineries to compete at this price point under a traditional business model. Stella excels in the varieties that are indigenous to the various regions where the wines are made. The Trebbiano and Montepulciano from Abruzzo are tasty..."-The Wine Advocate

From Veneto:

Tedeschi Valpolicella San Rocca Ripasso 2005
Green's Cash Price: $19.99

"Fresh and fruity, with clean blackberry and mineral aromas and flavors. Medium-bodied, with fine, fruit-coated tannins and a lip-smacking fruit and mineral finish. Drink now."-The Wine Spectator

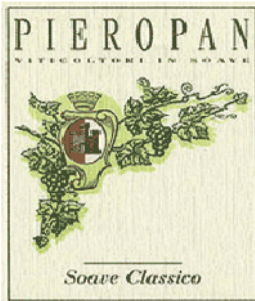

White Wines:

From Südtirol/Alto Adige:

Tiefenbrunner Pinot Grigio delle Venezie 2008
Green's Cash Price: $11.99

"...is pretty, refined and elegant in its expression of fruit...87 points."-The Wine Advocate

From Veneto:

Pieropan Soave 2008
Regular Price: $18.99
Green's Cash Sale Price: $14.99

"Pieropan's "basic" 2008 Soave is one of my wines of the year because it's a benchmark bottling...Pieropan's flagship Soave is arguably its best achievement because it upholds a standard that so many other producers in the zone fail to fulfill.

This is superb dry white wine, ballerina-light in weight and delivery yet with a tensile flavor strength and mineral dimension that takes you by surprise..."-Matt Kramer of The Wine Spectator

From Venezia-Giulia:

Jermann Pinot Grigio Venezia-Giulia 2008
Green's Cash Sale Price: $19.99

"Tropical fruit aromas lead to a full body, with plenty of fruit and an orange peel and pie tart aftertaste. Delicious."-The Wine Spectator

(photo courtesy of about.com)

back to top
back to news
