Green's Latest Wine Find from California

Mazzocco Cabernet Sauvignon Dry Creek Valley 2007

Green's Cash Price: $19.99

This gold medal winning Cabernet (at the prestigious Sonoma County Harvest Fair) is the best buy in a California Cabernet Sauvignon since the Angel's Landing Stag's Leap 2007 we offered last year. Intense cassis and smoke in the bouquet, the flavors in the mouth are complex and powerful. First, you experience a rich, lush mouth feel, quickly followed by black fruit, smoke, and balsamic (that's a good thing), with good grip. This wine is perfectly ready to drink now, but will hold several years. If you liked Angel's Landing, you'll love this!

Mazzocco Zinfandel Dry Creek Valley 2007

Green's Cash Price: $19.99

From Dry Creek Valley, the veritable epicenter of quality Zinfandel in the world. The history of winemaking here goes back 135+ years, making it one of the longest cultivated areas in California. No other wine producing district can match the quantity and quality of their old vine Zinfandel. So take this superb fruit and combine it with the extraordinary dedication Mazzocco shows to the production of Zinfandel, and you have the recipe for extraordinary results. Berry, tar, and licorice aromatics, on the palate it has a soft berry entry, followed by a brawny, spicy flavor in the mid-palate and finish. Very good, it is everything Zin is supposed to taste like.
